BIO

BETTAK is a contemporary painter, based between London and Athens. The artist is mostly known for her vivid and colourful artworks.

The artist has participated in two group exhibitions, both held in July, 2022, and has held two solo exhibitions, in the Municipal Art Gallery of Mykonos (2022) and in the “Pallas Theatre”, Athens (2023).

BETTAK has collaborated with the Greek lifestyle magazine "Athens Voice" to design their cover (2020). Other projects include the creation of rugs with her design, with the Milan- based company “Malcusa”.

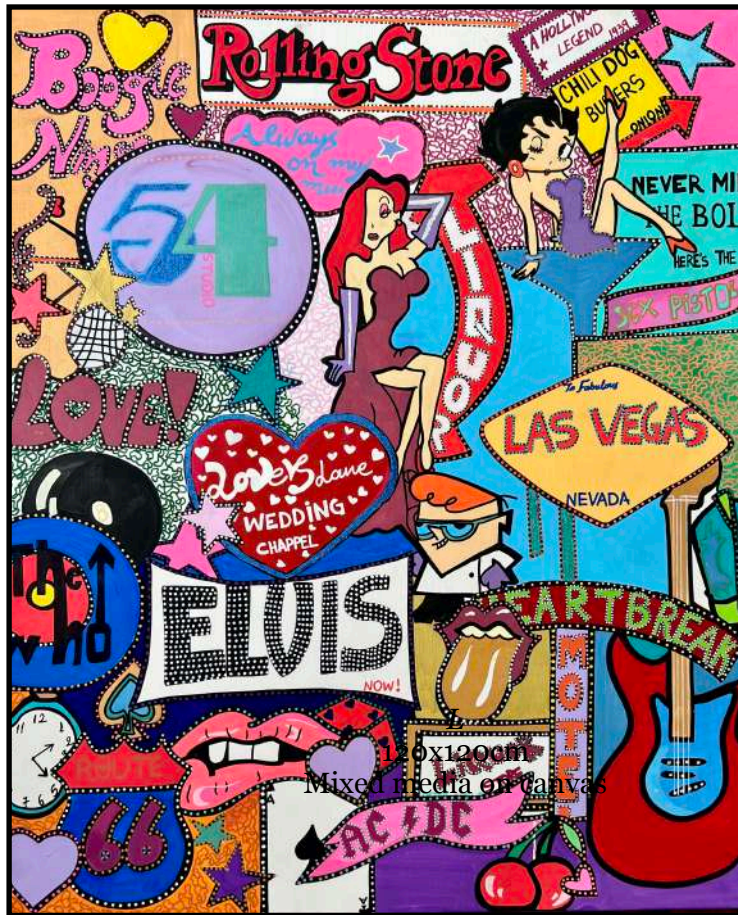

The artist is inspired by the art scene of the 70s. The decade is instrumental to her work mostly for its music, photography and aesthetics. Throughout her paintings, BETTAK expresses the influences and inspirations she draws from different sources of the past and combines them with today's life.
